

BEYOND THE LIBRARY DOOR DISCOVERY DAY

Saturday 6 April

A special binding-focused library discovery day as part of our Beyond the Library Door project.

BOOKBINDINGS: ANCIENT AND MODERN EXHIBITION

09:00 – 17:00, Library

See a range of bound books from ancient leather bound and embossed books to modern art of decorative bindings created by members of the Wessex Guild of Bookbinders.

EXPLORING BOOKBINDINGS IN SALISBURY CATHEDRAL LIBRARY

11:00 – 12:30, South Transept

A talk by Dr Anne Dutton, Assistant Librarian. Anne will be talking about some of the bookbindings she is recording in our new catalogue, followed by an opportunity to see the books close up.

DROP-IN BOOKBINDING WORKSHOP

14:00 – 16:30, South Transept

Have a go at making a simple bound notebook. Suitable for adults and children over eight years. Younger children can have fun decorating a medieval illuminated letter.

All events on this day are free, included in your donation to the Cathedral.
